"Paws & Tales The Animated Series 'Seeing the Unseen' Receives the BRONZE AWARD from Family Review Center"

SEATTLE, WA – March 27, 2006 Family Review Center announced that Providential Pictures has been awarded the BRONZE AWARD, for their video known as 'Seeing The Unseen' which is part of the Paws & Tales The Animated Series. This award was issued to Providential Pictures on the basis of a 5UP (perfect) Review, and by the panel of judges determining out of all the products reviewed in this time period, 'Seeing The Unseen' stood out as one that deserved great admiration, for its distinctive appeal, uplifting message, and its professional production.

'Seeing The Unseen' is a video (DVD) that is fun for all ages. While it targets the ages of 4-8, our reviewer found it to be enjoyed by the whole family. The message is subtle, yet clear; that we can trust in God, eventhough we cannot see Him. The video illustrates this message to its audience, by using the wind and love, how we know they are there, eventhough we cannot see them or touch them. Children can truly capture the message of this movie, and understand in a new way, at a new level.

Providential Pictures has teamed up with the well known pastor and author Charles Swindoll, to produce this great series, that uses 3D animation, wonderful animal characters, and great storylines, to teach children lessons in their faith as well as in their character.
